

German Influence in the Medieval Period

Thursday, 24th of October 2024

2.00 pm	Start of excursion in Speyer
3.30 pm	Guided tour of the Judenhof (Kleine Pfaffengasse 21, 67346 Speyer)
4.30 pm	Visit to the Speyer Cathedral
6.30 pm	Dinner in Speyer (Restaurant "Zur alten Münz", Korngasse 1A, 67346 Speyer)

Please email the organisers at katja.gutzmer@uni-mannheim.de. For further information:
<https://www.daad.cam.ac.uk/workshops/german-influence-in-the-medieval-period>

Friday, 25th of October 2024

Experience Lab, University of Mannheim (library: Schloss Schneckenhof)

9.15 am	Start
9.30 am	Vedran Sulovsky	Imperial Notary Friedrich of St. Thomas between Strasbourg, Italy and the East
	Tim Schnatterer	Economics of a Double Monastery – Analysing the Accounting Books of the Augustinian Canonesses of Klosterneuburg
11 am	Coffee break
11.30 am	Sophie Henle	Political, Economic and Social Networks – Applying Social Network Analysis to Late Medieval Village Communities
	Linda Mosig	Guardianship and Regency in Late Medieval Principalities
1 pm	Lunch
2 pm	Stanislas Banach	The Impact of Covert and Public Communications on Revolt and Civic Violence in Central Europe, 1450-70
	Lena von den Driesch	Multiple Loyalties? Political Relations of the Counts Of Leiningen across the English Channel in the early 15 th Century
3.30 pm	Coffee break	Experience Lab
4 pm	Clotilde Lemarié	The Diffusion of Intellectual Practices in the Long 12 th Century: the Evidence from Manuscripts of Marbod of Rennes' De ornamentis verborum in German-speaking Regions
	Ido Kons	Saintly Bishop or 'Enemy of the Human Race'? The Intertextual Memory of Lull of Mainz
	Philipp Friedhofen	Perilous Gifts: A journey of motifs from Germany to Iceland?
7 pm	Dinner	Restaurant "Reinterrassen. Gasthaus am Fluss" Rheinpromenade 15, 68163 Mannheim